

Greenwich Time

Monday, November 14, 2011 | greenwichtime.com | Since 1877 | $1.00

Greenwich people

CONTRIBUTED PHOTO

This summer members of Greenwich Scouting's Order of the Arrow Lodge attended SummitCorps 2011, a week of service and adventure at the New River Gorge National River in West Virginia. The event was conducted in partnership with the National Park Service and the West Virginia National Guard. It hosted 1,404 Scouts and Scout leaders, who constructed more than 12 miles of trails. The 10,600-acre property in West Virginia will be the new site of the National Jamboree in 2013 and will offer activities such as whitewater rafting, rappelling, mountain biking, ziplining, hiking and more. For more information about the Summit, visit www.greenwichscouting.org. Pictured: top row, from left: Patrick Dillon, Rich Rooney, Bob Moore, Jim Heavey. Bottom row: Dominick Borrigo, Brian King, James Harnett, Sean Dillon.